

Jeanette Daffin
passed away 11th February, 2010

Jeanette had been ill for a while and was in hospital, but she lost the battle to survive.

For those who have been in the Cobra Car Club for a while, Jeanette and Roger will be remembered for many things such as dress ups at West Wyalong, get togethers at their place to celebrate just about anything (just to get friends together as their hospitality had no boundaries) and Jeanette's hand made pottery.

One thing that people may not realise, the Australia Day picnic at Rowland Reserve Bayview, is one of Jeanette and Roger's gatherings that the club was invited to many years ago and even after they moved to Queensland it has stood the test of time as the one event for the club that has continued to grow.

They moved to Queensland some time back to enjoy a great retirement.

Jeanette will be sadly missed by Roger, their two boys and all the rest of the family along with her friends in the Cobra Car Club.
